Trice and his younger sister, Sara, were sleeping in their nest one morning

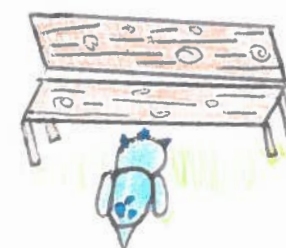

When they woke up, they couldn't find their mom. So, Trice and Sara set off to find her.

They searched behind trees...

under the bench...

Suddenly Sara began to cry.

Don't be silly if we keep looking, we'll find her.

What if we never find mom?

Let's go.

OK

So they searched in their neighborhood

They looked everywhere, but still couldn't find their mom.

ow. my face.

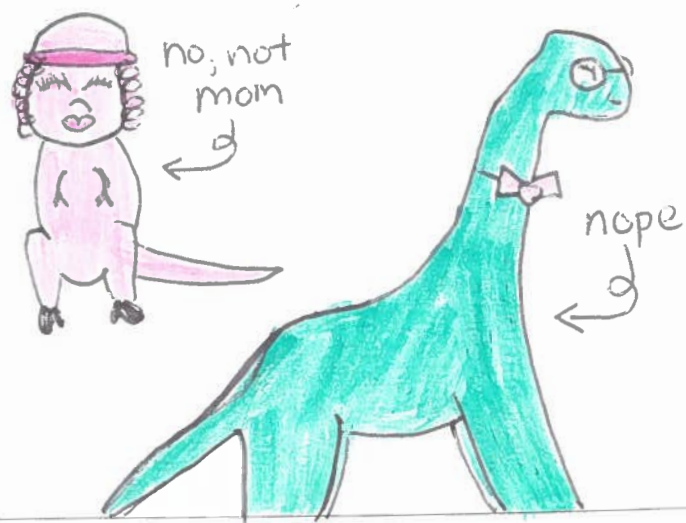

finally, they arrived at the library.

Then, they went to the kids section

They saw many other dino moms, but none were their mom.

Just then, they spotted their mom.

mom! I love you, but stop going to the library without us!

yeah, we want to come too!
