BULLETIN BOARDS

The Library may permit distribution of, or may post on its bulletin boards, announcements of the cultural activities of the community (those concerned with literature, art, music, drama, and related activities) and public announcements of general interest to the community.