Funds raised by the group for the new Main Library will be held in a special account for the future. A meeting between the Friends and Library staff was held to determine options for storage and book sales when the Wilcomb Warehouse is demolished for future development.

   b. Boise Public Library Foundation

      Booe shared that the Foundation would not meet in December. Donors who have contributed to the Main Library project have been asked how they wish to have their donation handled given the status of the project. Key donors have requested that their funds be returned. The Foundation will hold a social media campaign about loving the Library in December and will focus on normal business going forward. The group will meet again in January.

   c. Library Director’s Report Including Administration and Management

      Booe presented his final report as Library Director and indicated that Boise City Mayor Dave Bieter proclaimed the Library initiative as an ordinance on December 10, 2019. City employees have been advised they will not be able to work on a Main Library project. The ordinance states that before any major library project of $25 million or more can go before the people, schematic designs have to be presented. The legal question becomes if we can’t work on a project how can anything be presented for a vote? The ordinance would need challenged by a private citizen or the Friends of the Boise Public Library or the Boise Public Library Foundation.

      Booe stated that during his career he has worked with numerous Library Board members and Mayors. He asked the Board that as they think about a library that they think about a world class library and don’t settle.

   Fleming left the meeting at 11:46 a.m.
Booe suggested that the Trustees consider forming a library district. As a district the Board could decide their destiny. The Idaho Commission for Libraries can provide consulting services and Booe recommended they research this option and remove the Library from the political arena. Ada Community Library, Kuna Library and Meridian Library are all library districts. Booe stated that twenty years with no progress of a new Main Library is far too long. He will continue to work with the Foundation, Friends, and community groups to see that there is a change for Library community service. He charged the Trustees to become a library district.

Fleming returned to the meeting at 11:48 a.m.

The Trustees thanked Booe for the legacy he has left and hopes that the indelible mark he left will be carried on.

Booe mentioned that Mayor elect McLean will be sworn in on January 7, 2020. He asked that the Trustees bear with senior staff as transitions with the Mayor’s Office take place.

   Section 3.00, Services, Subsection 3.01-3.03- Action Item
