5. Reports
   a. Friends of the Boise Public Library
      Johnson updated the Board on the Friends’ May auction which raised $2,500. In addition, the Friends are preparing for the upcoming Summer Reading & Learning Celebration held by the Library. At this event, volunteers will invite patrons to become members, give away books, and market their new website. The Friends’ website includes easy access to volunteer forms, information, sale dates, and membership sign ups. Johnson notified the Board about an upcoming porch sale at the main library location.

   b. Boise Public Library Foundation
      Franks presented three key updates to the Board. The Foundation contributed $60,000 from the Mary Clara Allison Trust to the Library for the purchase of print materials. The Foundation is also in preliminary conversation on how to support the upcoming Boise Comic Arts Festival, facilitated by the Library. Lastly, Franks gave an update on the Foundation’s effort to consider hiring an administrative support person. Due to insufficient workload, the Foundation has chosen not to move forward with this position at this time.

   c. Library Director’s Report Including Administration and Management
      Dorr reported that all library locations operated at normal services since the last Board meeting, indicating no Covid-19 related changes needed to take place. Dorr also notified the Board of training, provided by the City Attorney’s Office, for directors and Board members. After attending the first training, Dorr recommended the Trustees consider attending the second training session on May 18th. Trustees discussed the value of periodic training for the Board.

      Dorr updated the Board on the Fiscal Year 2023 (FY 2023) budget timeline. The Library is on track to present its FY 2023 budget for Board approval in June. Dorr asked the Board to submit questions about the budget to her prior to the June Board meeting so that staff is prepared with answers. Dorr also recommended Trustees watch the May 24th City Council work session as it will speak primarily on the FY 2023 budget. As a final note on the topic, Dorr notified the Board that Shawn Wilson from the City’s Public Works Department will present at the June Board meeting.
To end her report, Dorr reminded the Board of upcoming Library events as well as the State of the City address.

6. Old Business
   a. Boise Public Library Policy Review
      Section 4.00, Use of the Library
      Kelley-Chase presented Section 4.00, Use of the Library (Policy 4.05, Technology; Policy 4.06, Public Internet Access and Safety; Policy 4.07, Confidentiality of Records). There were no staff recommended changes to these policies and were presented as discussion items only. Board approval is unnecessary for regulation changes. Trustees discussed the extent of confidentiality for patrons.

      This continues the Library Board of Trustees annual policy review for Fiscal Year 2022 as stipulated by the Board’s bylaws.

   b. Strategic Planning
      Lewis shared with the Board a status update on the Library’s strategic planning, including timeline adjustments, a steering committee update, and next steps for Board involvement. Magnuson gave his thoughts on the steering committee work so far and his view of the timeline adjustments. Trustees advised staff to take the time needed to develop a good plan.

      Lewis will present another update to the Board in June.

7. New Business
   a. 2022 Summer Reading Program
      Branahl presented the upcoming Summer Reading Program. The Library’s Summer Reading Program works to make reading a fun, daily activity and has opportunities for all ages. This year, the Summer Reading Program will include a celebration event, which Trustees were invited to attend. Branahl explained to Trustees the tracking systems patrons can use in addition to how prizes will be categorized and distributed.

   b. FY22 Ada Community Library Annexation Compensation Agreement – Action Item
      Davis gave context to the FY22 Ada Community Library Annexation Compensation Agreement to the Board. Trustees asked questions on the effects the agreement will have on the budget.
MOTION by Magnuson and seconded by Klene to approve $544,000 for the Fiscal Year 2022 Ada Community Library Annexation Compensation Agreement. All in favor, motion carried.

8. Selection of Trustee to Review Payment Vouchers
   Galaviz was selected to be the next Trustee to review vouchers.

9. Selection of Meeting Date
   The next Board of Trustees meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, June 8, 2022 at 11:30 a.m.

10. Executive Session: 74-206 (1)(b) Personnel Matters
