5. Reports

   a. Friends of the Boise Public Library

      Johnson introduced herself to the new Board members. Johnson expressed her thanks to Lewis, Dorr, and the consultants leading the Strategic Planning for including the Friends in the process. Johnson reported that the Friends are preparing for their next sale, taking place August 18th-21st at the Main Library.

   b. Boise Public Library Foundation

      Manship introduced himself to the new Board members. With their new year’s focus on supporting Library programs, Manship reported the Foundation’s commitment to contribute funds to this year’s Boise Comic Arts Festival. The Foundation hopes to support other programs in the future.

   c. Library Director’s Report Including Administration and Management

      Dorr began by thanking the Foundation for their contribution to the Boise Comic Arts Festival.

      Dorr brought attention to the hyperlinks in her report, leading to various news articles and interviews about the Library’s new Mental Health Coordinator. She expressed her excitement about the publicity, pointing out that many organizations have reached out to the Library to provide resources in conjunction with the Mental Health Coordinator.

      Dorr reported on recent staff challenges. Because of this, the Library! at Bown Crossing have adjusted their hours, making Saturdays in July curbside pick-up only. Trustees asked questions about Library turnover and retention rate with staff. Councilmember Hallyburton made remarks about the recent cost of living adjustments and city-wide ventures to help combat turnover.

Trustees and staff discussed the May statistics provided in the Board packet.

6. Old Business
   a. Boise Public Library Policy Review— Action Item
      Section 6.00, Gifts and Bequests and Section 7.00, Use of Meeting Rooms
      Kelley-Chase presented Section 6.00, Gifts and Bequests and Section 7.00, Use of Meeting Rooms to the Board. For the new Trustees, Kelley-Chase explained the role the Board has over the Library’s policies. A change in Section 7.00, Policy 7.01, Meeting Rooms was presenting to the Board.

      MOTION by Pantera and seconded by Klene to approve the recommended change requested. All in favor, motion carried.

   b. Strategic Planning
      Lewis presented the monthly update to the Board on the Library Strategic Plan. Lewis went over the outcome goals and process goals of the Strategic Plan. She also presented the timeline for the plan, putting emphasis on the phases and implementation period. Lewis provided a Steering Committee update, discussing the high level themes and peer benchmarking they identified. In addition, Lewis gave an update on staff engagement, presenting numbers and data on the staff survey and listening sessions.

      Board involvement in the Strategic Planning continues with one-on-one meetings between BERK Consulting Inc. and the new Trustees and upcoming community listening sessions. Lewis gave an overview of next steps.

      Being on the Steering Committee, Magnuson gave a report on his perspective. He stated that the Library staff are very capable and found the Steering Committee excelling at adjusting things to be more inclusive. Trustees discussed the Strategic Plan time line and accessibility with remarks from Councilmember Hallyburton.

7. New Business
   a. Friends of the Library Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) Dorr explained the importance of the MOU and the Friends’ relationship with the Library. After the Board’s July meeting, the Friends’ Board of Directors will review and approve the MOU draft. Then it will be presented to the Trustees once again for a motion to approve.

8. Selection of Trustee to Review Payment Vouchers
   Magnuson was selected to be the next Trustee to review vouchers.
