

Library!

UN

2023 Challenge Categories

- Read a book that celebrates your freedom to read
- Read a book about someone that identifies as a different gender than you
- Read a how-to book
- Read an allegory
- Read a book you found in a Little Free Library
- Read a book by a female author under a male pseudonym
- Read a British crime classic
- Read a fantasy
- Read a book by an award-winning Canadian author
- Read a book by a Pacific Northwest author
- Read the first book in a series
- Read the second book in a series
- Read the third book in a series
- Read a book with recipes
- Read a book by an author from The Cabin's "Reading and Conversations" series
- Read a book where the narrator is not the main character
- Read a book found while browsing
- Read a book of nature writing
- Read a book about the experience of a refugee
- Read a book about a different socioeconomic class
- Read a book from a child's point of view
- Read a book found in a book list
- Read a gothic novel
- Read a western
- Read a biographical fiction
- Read a book involving art
- Read a graphic novel adaptation of a classic
- Read a NaNoWriMo book
- Read a romance
- Read a book written from a non-human point of view
- Read a book set in your dream vacation location
- Read a book from the 800's in the Dewey Decimal System
- Read a book based in the Middle East
- Read a book about a social movement
- Read a book required in school
- Read a book by an author that shares their first name with you (or initials)
- Read a book from your to-be-read list
- Read a book about a holiday tradition you don't celebrate
- Read a book with "Rain" in the title
- Read a book that takes place on a boat/ship
- Read a book written by an author over 50
- Read a teen/young adult book
- Read a book with a one-word title
- Read a book from a different viewpoint than your own
- Read a dystopian novel
- Read a book of essays
- Read a book by a person represented at BCAF (author, comic artist, etc.)
- Read a book featuring an Indigenous person
- Read a book written by a Basque author (or about Basque culture)
- Read a book recommended by a library staff member