NO MOTION was taken on this action item.

Lewis returned to the Board with an update on the Library’s strategic plan. She began with a synopsis from the Library’s presentation to City Council. Councilmember Hallyburton also made remarks about the presentation.

With the Library engaged in phase 2 – drafting the strategic plan -- Lewis shared the refined vision, mission, and values for the Library, determined by the phase 1 data. Trustees discussed these refinements and made recommendations.

Lewis shared the drafted strategic priorities and goals. So far, strategic priorities include the following: expanding access, increasing impact, optimizing resources, and measuring value. A narrative connecting and defining all of these will be brought to the Board for review.

Lewis and staff will continue to draft both an inward and outward facing strategic plan.
