5. Reports
   a. Friends of the Boise Public Library
      Johnson shared that the Friends sale at the Hillcrest Branch will occur September 14-16. The Friends are also planning an online auction November 3-12 to offer unique items to the public. Johnson shared that the group is still looking to expand its Board. Individuals interested in joining the group can find information on the Friends website.
   b. Boise Public Library Foundation
      Manship reported that the Foundation has two new Director’s on the Board. The group is actively involved in supporting the Boise Comic Arts Festival and is gathering sponsorships. The Foundation will attend BCAF to bring awareness to their organization and the Library
   c. Library Director’s Report including Administration and Management
      Dorr shared with Trustees the 2022 Library Annual Report. The report will be published to the website by Friday, August 18. The Strategic Plan will also be updated on the Library’s website by Friday.

      Flooring replacement for the Library! at Cole & Ustick is complete and was a full library effort to move all the books off the shelves. The Library! at Hillcrest will close next week for its scheduled flooring replacement. Services at the branch will be unavailable during the replacement.

      Dorr informed the Trustees that a training for Board & Commission members would be upcoming in September. Trustees should expect an email with choices for attendance.

6. Old Business
   a. Boise Public Library Policy Review:
      Section 6.00, Gifts & Bequests
      Section 6.00, Gifts & Bequests was presented to the Board with no changes recommended.
Section 8.00, Displays & Exhibits
Section 8.00, Displays & Exhibits was presented to the Board with no changes recommended.

This concludes the Library Board of Trustees annual policy review of Fiscal Year 2023 as stipulated in the Board’s bylaws.

7. New Business
   a. Master Facilities Plan Planning
      Johnson provided context by reviewing the steps taken in developing the Strategic Plan. Using input from the community and the Library Board a plan was developed. Time and effort were spent in the community asking individuals what they wanted to see.

      Wilson spoke about upcoming facilities planning which will build on the strategic plan. The FY24 budget has approval for $300,000 for a plan to look at existing state of facilities, project growth, and develop alternatives to close the gap between the two. The facility plan will include community input and listening to the public for direction. The evaluation will be based on strategic planning goals and have extensive public engagements. Part of the process will be listening to what we’ve already heard from the public and communicating existing asset conditions to inform conversations.

   b. Boise Comic Arts Festival XI
      Addington and Shapel provided an overview of the upcoming Boise Comic Arts Festival happening September 29-October 1. Activities will take place at Zoo Boise, the Idaho State Museum, and the Erma Hayman House. Volunteers are still needed and interested individuals can register on the Library’s website. A teen comic creator program was started this year and the Librarians & Educators Day returns. The Boise Comic Arts Festival is the largest comic focused event in Idaho.

8. Selection of Trustee to Review Vouchers
   Lemmons was selected to be the Trustee to review vouchers.

9. Selection of Meeting Date– Action Item
   The next regular/annual meeting is September 13, 2023.
