5. Reports
   a. Friends of the Boise Public Library
      Johnson reported that the Friends approved four scholarships for Library employees. The Friends also resumed donations on October 9 and are planning an online auction November 3-12 to offer unique items to the public. Johnson also shared that the Friends sale at the Library! at Hillcrest was a huge success and thanked Library staff for their assistance.

   b. Boise Public Library Foundation
      Manship reported that the final payment for sponsorship of the Boise Comic Arts Festival was submitted. Manship shared that they had a successful sale despite the weather and were happy to sponsor BCAF for the second year in a row.

   c. Library Director’s Report including Administration and Management
      Dorr began her report by acknowledging Erin Martin as the recipient of the Gardner Hanks Scholarship awarded by the Idaho Library Association. Dorr reiterated that she is thrilled to have such great staff being recognized.

      Dorr also thanked everyone for joining the Library at the Boise Comic Arts Festival. It turned out to be a wonderful event full of creative and fun events. Dorr thanked the Idaho State Museum and the Boise City Department of Arts & History for their expanded partnerships this year.

      Dorr informed Trustees that with the start of FY24 a Data Analyst position should be posted soon and highlighted consortium changes which include additional courier routes to Emmett, Mountain Home, and Twin Falls. Dorr gave a big thanks to the Acquisitions and Technical Services Department, couriers, and partners for all their hard work to ensure deliveries can be made.

Dorr shared a reminder that the Board will be given a tour of the Main Library at the November meeting.

6. Educational Item
Villalobos presented to the Trustees an overview of the new Boise City Writer-in-Residence program and its goals. The inaugural program of the first Writer-in-Residence, Natalie Disney, will kick off in the Bingham Room at the Main Library on October 21. The program will run once a month through March 31, 2024. The second residency will then welcome Heidi Kraay, from April 1, 2024, through September 30, 2024.

Trustees commented how great it is that the program ties into the strategic plan and works with various groups across the city.

Villalobos and Hansen then discussed the upcoming Boise Public Library Book Faire that will take place at the Main Library on November 4 from 10AM-2PM. It will include an Author Alley, several staff led workshops and a 2023 holiday book buying guide.

7. Old Business
a. Boise Public Library Policy Review
   Section 1.00, Board of Trustees
   Section 1.00, Board of Trustees was presented to the Board with no changes recommended.

   Trustees engaged in discussion regarding complaints being brought to the board. Dorr stated that she would take this as an action item to consider and bring to the board at a future meeting.

   This begins the Library Board of Trustees annual policy review for Fiscal Year 2024 as stipulated by the Board’s bylaws.

b. Capital Project Update
   Erb provided an update on current projects taking place at the Main Library and anticipated start dates for future facility improvements.

   Trustees asked about the budget for current projects and when the Board could expect to know the total for future projects. Wilson responded that they are actively working on getting the estimates and will present the information to the Board at a future meeting.
c. Master Facilities Plan Process

Wilson began the presentation about upcoming efforts to create a Masters Facilities Plan by giving a summary of the process, steps completed, and a roadmap developed to organize the jumpstart of the project.

Councilmember Hallyburton asked if a timeline had already been established for phases to start. Wilson responded that they are hoping to start as soon as they are able. Johnson noted that they are taking the time needed to do things right and be flexible with timelines to allow for community input.

8. New Business
   a. Mental Health Coordinator

Hammond discussed how the Mental Health Coordinator role has been incorporated into the Library since it was created in 2022. Hammond also spoke about how libraries have seen an increase in users experiencing life challenges surrounding mental health, housing, and poverty. Ongoing programs and partnerships have allowed Hammond to connect with and bring resources to those individuals who frequent the Library. In total, 184 individuals were served and 375 interactions took place in a one year period.

Trustees thanked Hammond for her great work and discussed her rotating schedule that includes time at all neighborhood branch libraries.

Klene left the meeting at 12:39 p.m.

Klene returned to the meeting at 12:40 p.m.

9. Selection of Trustee to Review Vouchers

Kamal was selected to be the Trustee to review vouchers.
